

TACRAO Member Listserv Surveys

Return to Bobbye G. Fry at fry@uiwtx.edu.

Date of Original Survey: May 20, 2008

Original Author: Pat Black, Texas A&M Texarkana

Original Question: We have a student who has a degree from a school accredited by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools. He has applied to our master's program. How do you handle a student who applies to your graduate program who has a degree from a school that is not regionally accredited? Do you allow them to enroll on a probationary basis?

Respondent	Institution	Responses (adjust/add columns /rows as needed)
Bobbye Fry	University of the Incarnate Word	Does not accept work unless from a regionally accredited institution
Robert Jenkins	The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston	Does not accept work unless from a regionally accredited institution
	Lamar University	Does not accept work unless from a regionally accredited institution
Bob Cullins	Sul Ross State University	Yes, would accept student
Melanie Chaffin	Texas Tech University	Does not accept work unless from a regionally accredited institution
	Texas A&M University	Does not accept work unless from a regionally accredited institution