COMMON PROBLEMS

- Determining that the transcript you sent has been received and processed
- Coding of AP/CBE credit
- Technical problems such as expired passwords

WHAT IS TREX?

- Electronically moves student records between Texas public school districts
- Electronically moves student transcripts from public schools to institutions of higher education using the SPEEDE Server maintained by the NSC
- Legislation requires Texas public high schools to send electronically to Texas public colleges and universities. ***One assumes, then, that this same legislation REQUIRES Texas public colleges to receive them.

TREX STATS

- May-June this year (2018): 30,000 high school transcripts sent to TX colleges. Spikes mid-year and end of spring.
- 408 Texas colleges can receive TREx
- 1,300 school districts including 1,500 high schools send TREx
- Since 2010, UT System has received 600,000 TREx transcripts
- Since 2010, A&M System has received 300,000 TREx transcripts

MORE ABOUT TREX

- TREx started as a 3rd party vendor which was then bought by Pearson which was then sold to TEA where it became a free service for Texas schools.
- High schools must work with a vendor such as Skyward or E-School.
- High school registrar sends transcript to TREx where the TREx software maintained by TEA then converts to EDI and sends to SPEEDE server which then sends to the colleges.
- Students can request that transcript be sent via ApplyTX.
- Colleges can use Quick-&-Easy to display/print the high school transcript.

TREX SUPPORT & FAQ

- TEA has help number and email for questions from all users of TREx.
  - 512-463-7246
  - TREx@tea.state.tx.us
  - <http://tea.texas.gov/index4.aspx?id=25769817556> (TREx web site)
- Primary issue for high schools is colleges which don't send acknowledgments
- Note that high schools can have as many free TREx accounts as they like, which can help prevent delays when they have a large volume of transcripts to send. School districts often don't realize this.
